

Grievance Policy v1.1

Policy approved by: Diocesan Council

Reference to approval resolution: 21/022

Date of approval: 10th March 2021

Review date: March 2026

1. Context

Open communication and feedback are regarded as essential elements of satisfying and productive work and faith communities.

2. Objective

The purpose of this Policy is to provide an avenue through which Office Holders, employees and volunteers, and their managers, and members of the Anglican Church in the Diocese can resolve work-related complaints as they arise, in accordance with the principles adopted in 2014 by the General Synod of the Anglican Church of Australia in Being Together: Expectations of behaviour in our church community.

3. Scope

- 3.1. This Policy applies to all Office Holders, employees and volunteers working for Synod or working in parishes and to all active members of the Anglican Church in the Diocese.
- 3.2. The subject matter of this Policy and of the Professional Standards Ordinance overlap. The scope of this Policy includes behaviour of Church workers which could be covered by the Diocesan Professional Standards Ordinance, (where the misconduct is so serious that it calls into question the Church worker's fitness for office), but this Policy's scope is not limited to behaviour of Church workers. Prospective complainants are encouraged to consider availing themselves of the opportunities for resolution afforded by this Policy prior to or instead of initiating a complaint under the Professional Standards regime.
- 3.3. Matters excluded from this Policy are:
  - 3.3.1. staff recruitment, appointment, probation and conditions of employment of staff;
  - 3.3.2. grant of Bishop's licences;
  - 3.3.3. allegations which (if proven) constitute criminal behaviour. This includes allegations of sexual or child abuse. All such allegations are to be referred to the Professional Standards Director and reported to SAPOL and CARL as the case requires, in accordance with the Professional Standards Ordinance, the Diocesan Code of Conduct and the Safe Ministry Policy.

4. Definitions

Church worker means a person who is, or who at any relevant time was, a member of the clergy, a person employed by a Church body, or a person holding a position or performing a function with the actual or apparent authority of a Church authority or Church body, but excludes a bishop.

Members of the Church means all active members of the Anglican Church, whether lay or ordained.

5. Principles

- 5.1. The Synod is committed to maintaining workplaces and faith communities that encourage collaboration, trust, cooperation and communication, where all behaviours are consistent with the Synod's adopted Code of Conduct Faithfulness in Service.
- 5.2. The Synod will establish mechanisms to promote fast and efficient resolution of issues that arise in its workplaces.
- 5.3. The Synod encourages its Office Holders, employees, volunteers and Members of the Church to resolve any issues or concerns that they may have at the earliest opportunity with each other or, failing that, their immediate Supervisor.
- 5.4. Complaints or grievances in Synod workplaces will be handled and resolved in an appropriate, fair, transparent and timely manner and in accordance with the principles of natural justice.
- 5.5. Wherever possible, allegations are to be dealt with by a process of discussion, cooperation and conciliation, with the aim being to reach a mutually acceptable outcome that is both fair and effective and which minimises the potential for ongoing damage to relationships.
- 5.6. No one who makes a grievance allegation in good faith is to be disadvantaged.

Being Together

Expectations of behaviour in our church community

Jesus told us to love one another as he loves us. As Christians we know our life together is strengthened when our behaviour is consistent with our faith. However, our experience of being together can be difficult, particularly when there are differences. So it is important to be clear about how we will behave towards each other.

Being a community:

- We will value the wellbeing and safety of others, especially children and other vulnerable people.
- We will encourage each other to participate in the life of the church.
- We will consider the impact of our behaviour on others.

Relating to each other:

- We will treat each other with respect and dignity, irrespective of ability, gender, sexuality, race, age or contribution to the church.
- We will act with integrity and honesty in our interactions with each other.
- We will protect the safety of all, especially children and other vulnerable people.

Communicating with each other:

- We will communicate respectfully with others, and not in a way that threatens, belittles or humiliates.
- We will speak with integrity and honesty, and refrain from speculation and gossip.

Acknowledging difference:

- We will respect those who are different from us and not isolate or ridicule them.
- We will listen to and seek to understand the beliefs, opinions and practices of others, even when we do not share their views.

Responding to conflict:

- We will accept responsibility for our part in a conflict.
- We will be willing to play our part in resolving a conflict.

(Adopted by General Synod 2014, 45/14, incorporating amendments approved by the Standing Committee of General Synod 16-17 April 2021.)
